Solo Sax For Special Occasions

Paul Klemperer has been entertaining audiences around the world for over 35 years, bringing his personal touch to a wide range of musical styles on saxophone, clarinet and flute. Drawing from R&B, Jazz, Blues, Latin, Country, Classical, and International styles, Paul specializes in pleasing audiences from all walks of life.

Whether the occasion calls for an intimate sound, soulful songs, or hard-driving rhythms, Paul Klemperer creates an amazingly full musical experience, solo and acoustic, using only his technical mastery, extensive musical repertoire, and ability to connect with people.

Paul Klemperer has played across the U.S., Latin America, Europe, and Asia, on festival stages in front of thousands of people, in funky nightclubs, upscale restaurants, in classrooms for school children from pre-K through college, beach resorts, conventions, weddings, memorial services... the list goes on. Wherever people need music, Paul Klemperer can bring it, and create a special and lasting memory.
